

RAIL REOPENINGS CONFERENCE

Shoreditch rejoined the rail network in May 2010 when the £1 billion East London Line reopened

A whole new array of journeys to destinations in north and south London became available and four new stations opened on the ELL's northern extension

But the ELL must become part of an orbital railway for London.

There is more to fight for. Come to Shoreditch and play a part in the rail renaissance

Conference theme: Britain's Growing Railway
