1. Personal Statement

I only claim for rail fares for attending meetings in England which always take place at least four hours away from my home in SE Scotland. I have not claimed for printing and internet costs, nor for travel to my local station (Berwick on Tweed is nearest, 35 miles away). I always use my Railcard so travel is cheaper. The waived travel costs relate to parking fees.

As Chair of RF Scotland, I have only claimed for attending one meeting in Thurso, which was outwith the Club 55 discount period.
